

TRAFFIC ADVISORY

Good afternoon,

Work continues on the San Francisco - Oakland Bay Bridge (SFOBB) Metering Light System Upgrade Project.

Construction updates for the week of December 13th are as follows:

DAYTIME

- None

NIGHTTIME

- Sunday 12/13/20: None
- Monday 12/14/20: None
- Tuesday 12/15/20: None
- Wednesday 12/16/20: None
- Thursday 12/17/20: None
- Friday 12/18/20: None
- Saturday 12/19/20: None

SPECIAL NOTICE:

- None

Notice: This information is based on the work plans submitted by the contractors which are subject to change. For the most current information on all lane and ramp closures, please check the website shown below before beginning your travel.

For More Information

For More Information: For more information about the project, please visit: <http://mtc.ca.gov/our-work/plans-projects/major-regional-projects/bay-bridge-east-span/bay-bridge-metering-lights>.

About the SFOBB Metering Light System Upgrade Project

The existing metering lights at the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge's toll plaza were installed in 1974 and run on now-outdated technology. This project will replace and upgrade the existing metering system software and hardware to improve westbound traffic flow at the Bay Bridge.