Bay Area Express Lanes Program

Megaregion Working Group

January 26, 2024

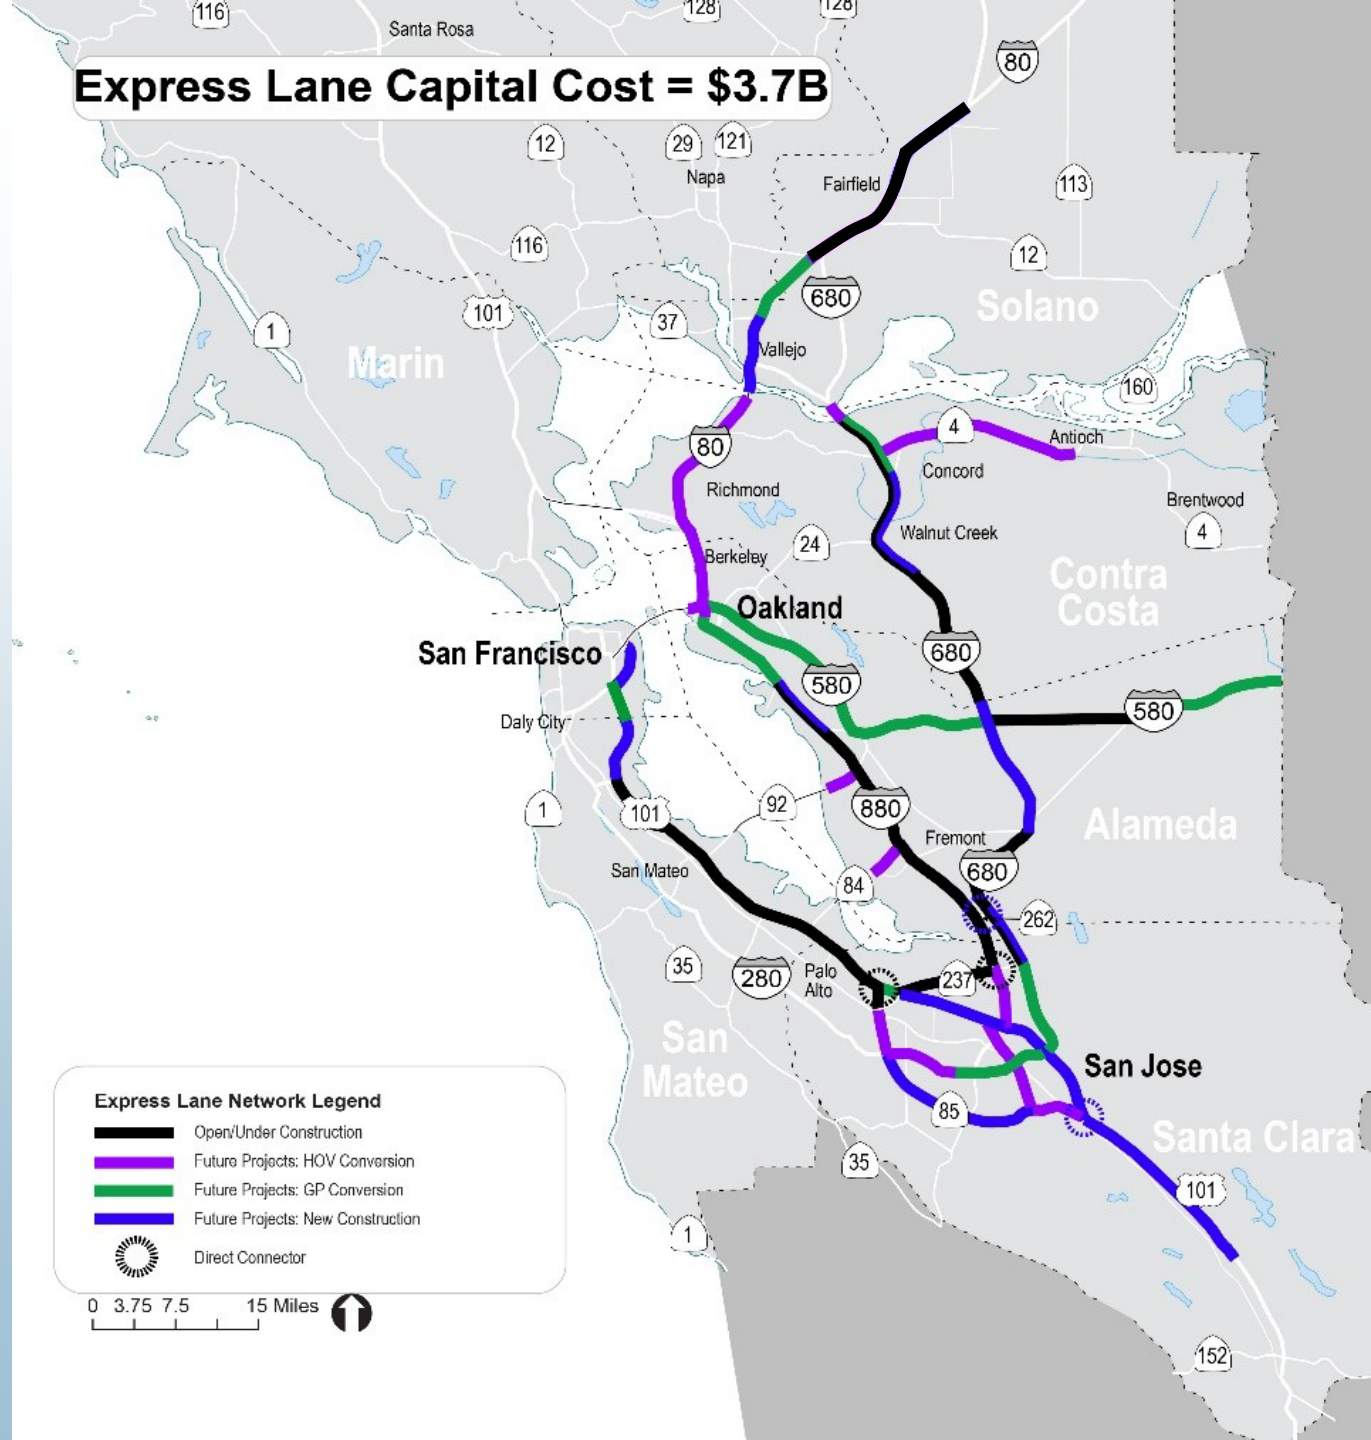

METROPOLITAN TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION

Regional Vision: Robust network serving carpools and buses

Express Lane Network in Plan Bay Area 2050:
~750 lane-miles total

Regional Network Growing Portfolio

- 155 miles in operation, 5 operators
- Open 8a-5p, M-F
- HOT 3+ Ring Around the Bay (I-880, SR-237, US 101)
- HOT 2+ (I-580, I-680)

Go-Live	Highway	County	Operator
2010	I-680	Alameda, Santa Clara	Sunol JPA
2012	I-880/SR-237 direct connectors	Santa Clara	VTA
2017	I-680	Contra Costa	MTC (BAIFA)
2019	SR-237	Santa Clara	VTA
2020	I-880	Alameda	MTC (BAIFA)
2022	US 101	Santa Clara, San Mateo	VTA, SMCEL-JPA
2025	I-80	Solano	MTC (BAIFA)

Seamless Tolling

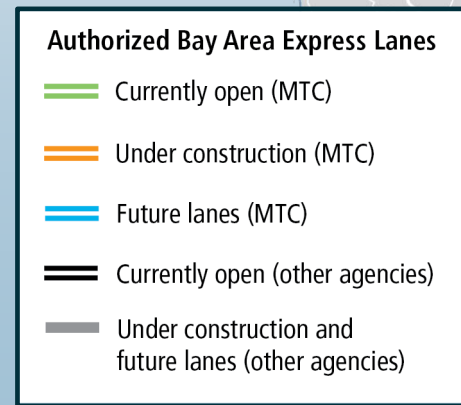

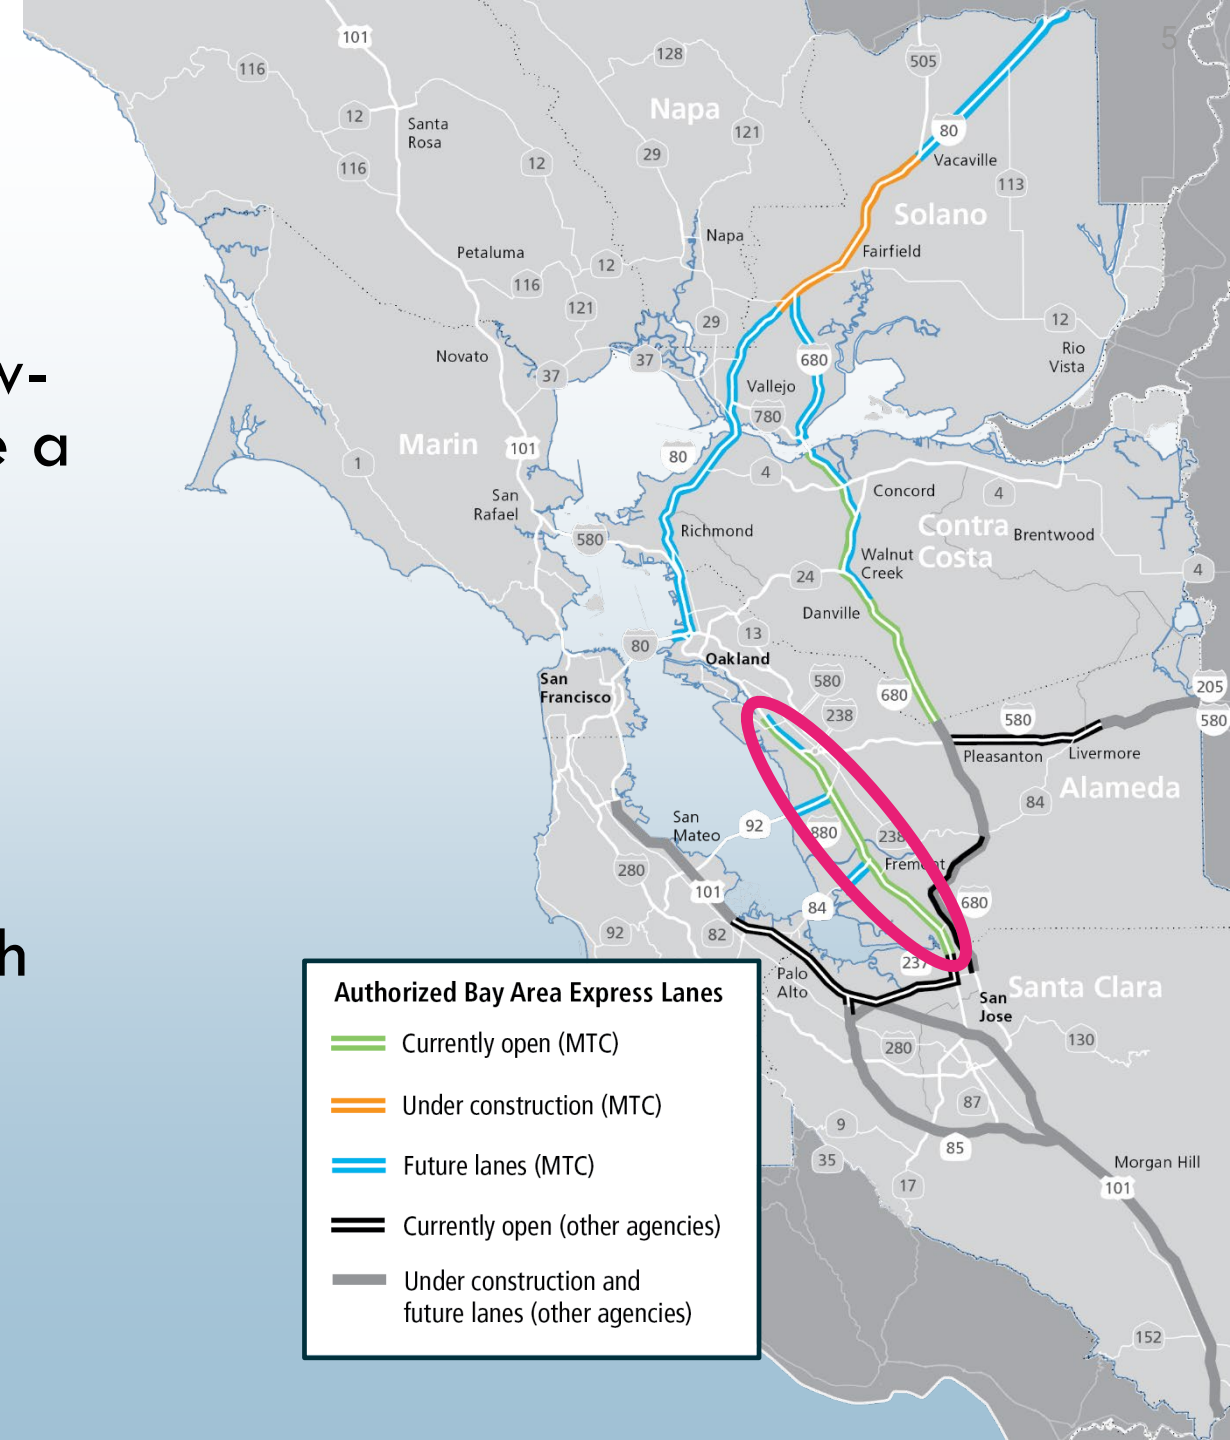

- Goal: consistent operations and customer-facing policies
- MOU for coordination between operating entities and other jurisdictions
- BAIFA Regional Toll Policy Committee represented by commissioners from each county
- Potentially, regional network planning, in close coordination with regional transit planning

Policy Board Decisions	Caltrans Decisions

* Caltrans should be advised of proposed changes, but departmental approval is not required. Caltrans sets occupancy requirements for untolled HOV lanes

Express Lanes STARTSM

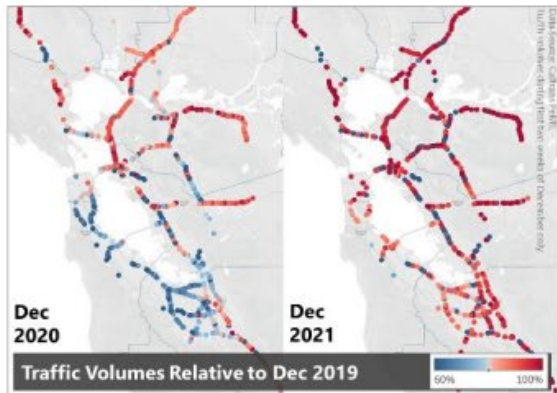

- Express lanes costs are a barrier for low-income drivers where transit may not be a viable option
- Expand mobility and access to opportunity with a 50% toll discount
- Leverage tools, rules and lessons of Clipper[®] STARTSM transit fare discount
- Advance and apply an equity approach
- Launched 18-month Express Lanes STARTSM pilot in spring 2023 on I-880 Express Lanes

Next Generation Freeways Study

Why are we studying the role of pricing in our future?

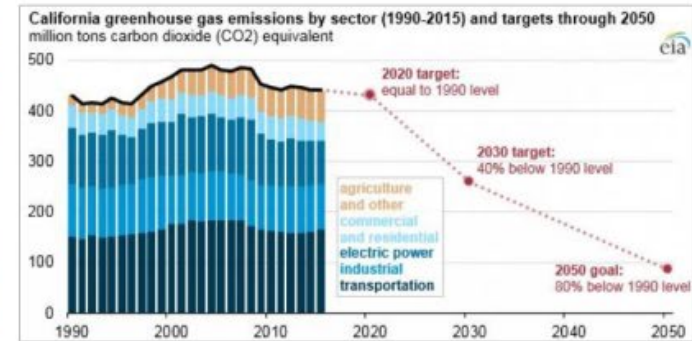

The Bay Area has transportation problems to solve

Pricing has potential to advance equity, if done right

We need bold strategies to meet ambitious emissions targets

(Median Corridor with Express Lanes Alternative Shown)

Roadway Pricing Overview

January 2024

Introduction

- Caltrans studies, plans, funds, and implements pricing efforts – including HOT/Express Lanes and congestion pricing – in partnership with regional and local agencies across the state
- More than 500 lane-miles of dynamically priced Express Lanes, 8 Bay Area toll bridges, and multiple toll roads in operation today
- Pricing can:
 - Reduce traffic, VMT, and carbon emissions
 - Encourage carpooling and transit use
 - Support lower-income populations

Roadway Pricing and Climate Goals

“California will not meet its climate goals without implementing equitable roadway pricing strategies as these strategies are projected to achieve up to 27 to 37 percent of the needed per capita VMT reduction”

- CARB Scoping Plan

- CAPTI: “Support the implementation of regional and local planning efforts that align with the framework, with a focus on finding a pathway to implementation for roadway pricing efforts and VMT mitigation called for by SB 743”
- CARB Scoping Plan: “Implement equitable roadway pricing strategies based on local context and need, reallocating revenues to improve transit, bicycling, and other sustainable transportation choices.”
- CTP 2050: “Price roadways to improve the efficiency of auto travel.”

Roadway Pricing Strategic Plan

- State transportation goals, objectives, and strategies within CAPTI, CTP 2050, and the Caltrans Strategic Plan shape how Caltrans plans, designs, and implements road pricing projects and how revenues should be reinvested
- Caltrans will be collaboratively developing a Roadway Pricing Strategic Plan over the next year, formalizing the Department's vision, strategies, and policies for pricing strategies
 - Focusing on dynamic pricing strategies to help reduce VMT and GHG emissions
 - Ensuring revenues are invested in projects and program that further reduce VMT and GHG emissions

State Roadway Pricing Working Group

- Advisory body of agency staff that meets quarterly to support road pricing projects and help them achieve the State's transportation, climate, equity, and public health goals
- Topics to focus on this year:
 - Equity
 - Communications
 - Toll Revenues
 - Conversions

Regional Infrastructure Accelerator Grant

- $2 million to fund work to expedite planning, development, and delivery of a pipeline of equitable and sustainable road pricing projects that support low carbon travel choices
