

Belia Ramos Biography

Belia is a first-generation Mexican-American who was born in Napa and raised in unincorporated St. Helena and Pope Valley. She currently resides in American Canyon but calls all of Napa County home. Belia is a business owner, educator, community advocate, and mother. Belia attended St. Helena public schools from kindergarten through high school. She graduated from Saint Mary's College of California in 1999 and UC Law SF (formerly UC Hastings) in 2004. Belia served as an American Canyon City Council Member from 2010-2016. In 2017, she began serving as the first Latina elected to the Napa County Board of Supervisors and currently serves on the following organizations: Association of Bay Area Governments, California State Association of Counties, North Bay Water Reuse Authority, Latino Caucus of California Counties, San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission, Bay Area Regional Collaborative, Napa-Vallejo Waste Management Authority, Regional Impact Council, Napa County Local Agency Formation Commission; and the Napa County Treasury Oversight Committee. Her involvement in the Metropolitan Transportation Commission began in 2025 as the ABAG representative in her capacity as ABAG President.